The house is of unusual construction, stone and cast iron detail and is in good condition. It was built in 1853 by M. Smith for Mr. M. Howard. The present owner is Mr. M. H. Pirvouka.

The walls are 20 inches thick and are faced with cobble stone. The sizes on different elevations vary, but are all laid in parallel lines.

The front has raised joints and raised cobbles. Side has raised cobbles with flat joints, and the rear has flat joints and flat stones.

The porch columns, window sills, and door and window heads are of cast iron.
